PRODUCT CATALOGUE

ABOUT US

Ayatana offers a rich assortment of products. Having over 30 years of experience in production and development of fermented beverages, we are bold and creative when fermenting new products and we maintain the highest quality control, which is one of our most important goals. We work with organic ingredients carefully selected from verified suppliers.

In house production and development make us flexible and open for new ideas and flavors. We will do our best to find the most interesting solution for you and your customers.

Our fermented drinks are teeming with microorganisms that improve digestion, metabolism, and well-being. We avoid all kinds of additives or artificial sweeteners, so our beverages are truly traditionally made, organic, healthy and top quality.

Consuming fermented products has a beneficial effect on our digestion, well-being, increasing energy levels, lowering blood pressure, reducing the risk of cardiovascular diseases and strengthening our immune system.
